

This presentation is based on a photograph of pupils at Sherfield School in 1939 supplied by Donald Rickwood, and his memories and those of his wife, Ursula, of the names of fellow pupils, and where these lived. Both Donald and Ursula were born and bred in Sherfield, where they lived until the mid-1980s.

The information on pupils' home addresses has been supplemented by material from the '1939 Register', compiled due to the onset of war and used for producing National Identity Cards.
